Welcome to Our Dance Studio Family!

We're thrilled to have you join our dance community! To keep things twirling smoothly, here's our fun and family-friendly guide to registration and billing.

Joining the Dance Party (Registration)

- Annual Membership Fee: Just $65 per dancer (capped at $150 per family, renewed every May) to keep the dance vibes going!
- First Steps:
  - August: Pay half-month tuition or a pro-rated amount to kick off the fun.
  - May: Full-month tuition to wrap up the season with a grand finale!
- Securing Your Spot: Registration fees are non-refundable and non-transferable, ensuring your dancer's place in our dazzling classes.
- Everyone's a Member: New dancers are enrolled as members at registration, with annual billing rolled over each May.

Monthly Tuition – Keep the Rhythm Going!

- Dance All Year: Tuition is based on a 9.5-month season (August–May), due by the 1st of each month.
- Steady Beat: The same amount every month, no matter how many classes your dancer attends—non-refundable and non-transferable for a worry-free groove.
- Auto-Billing Magic: Tuition and fees are automatically charged to the credit card on file per our billing cycle, and you can check your parent portal anytime for billing details—simple, stress-free, and no surprises!
- Late Fees: A $15 fee applies for payments after the 7th, so let's keep the rhythm on time (no waivers, please!).
- Bounced Checks: A $35 fee for returned checks—let's keep the dance floor bouncing, not the checks!
- Keeping Accounts Happy:
  - Accounts over 30 days or $400 past due mean dancers pause classes until the balance is cleared.
  - Accounts 60 days past due may be sent to collections, so let's stay in step together!
- Note: Company class hours and rehearsal fees are separate from regular tuition.

Billing with a Smile

- Card on File: Keep a valid credit card on file for all tuition and fees—it's like a backstage pass for easy payments!
- Update your card at registration or if it expires to keep the dance party going.
- Stay in the Groove:
  - Unpaid balances after the due date may lead to a pause in classes.
  - We'll give a 7-day grace period after notifying you to settle up. If unpaid, dancers will be un-enrolled, but can rejoin once the balance is paid (subject to class availability).
- Divorced Families: We keep it simple—one account per dancer. The registering parent/guardian handles all payments, and any private arrangements are up to you.
- Let's Stay Connected:
  - We'll reach out via email or phone if there's a billing hiccup. Please keep your contact info updated!
  - Payment issues (like an expired card) need quick fixes within the grace period to avoid late fees.
- Questions or Concerns:
  - Got a billing question? Let us know within 30 days of a charge, and we'll sort it out with a smile.
  - Refunds: We're sorry, but we don't offer refunds. However, we're happy to provide make-up classes to keep you dancing! Feel free to reach out with any billing questions or to schedule your make-up class.
- Past Due Notices: We only send statements for overdue accounts, so check the parent portal to stay in the know.

Thank you for being part of our dance family—we can't wait to see your dancers shine!

Tuition and Fees

2025-26 Tuition and Fees

Our dance studio tuition sparkles with auto-billing magic! It's based on weekly dance hours and paid in easy monthly installments, auto-charged to your card. Check your parent portal for billing details—no surprises!
